NOTES

- Harvest Dance - Phoeboia II. Like many of the inhabited planets Phoeboia II was first colonized by the survivors of a spaceship crash. There is no certainty as to where these survivors originated from. In the late 21st century many spaceships were launched manned by people who were looking for a new future, away from an over-populated Earth. Some succeeded, some managed to return, some were never heard of again. In 2311 a survey ship had to make an emergency landing on Phoeboia II and they found a thriving colony there. Although the early history of the colony is shrouded in antiquity, certain aspects of the language, as well as physical features, seem to point to a south-east European origin. The harvest dance, in the aspects of rhythm, melody and harmony has many things in common with the music of what once were the countries of Macedonia, Greece and Turkey, little of which has, unfortunately, been left due to primitive recording methods of the period.
- Ritual Seduction Dance - Rugel V. When first discovered Rugel V was already a very civilized planet populated by a humanoid race and governed by a class of superior females. The first settlers from Earth were held as slaves but gained freedom over the years. It is assumed that this happened because the Earth people were all male and considered very attractive by the native females in comparison with the aboriginal males. The Earth males were evidently very attracted to the native women, who on their part used all their womanly wiles to entice them. We all know that Rugel V is now a very advanced and totally integrated society. The people have not forgotten their roots, and these Ritual Seduction Dances are performed on a regular basis in commemoration of the original Grand Seduction. Musically speaking Romanian origin influenced by native characteristics is virtually certain.
- Attack Dance - Planet Khi't'on. This is the only dance in this suite that is purely native. The natives people known as Khi't'och are now very civilized, but initial contact was difficult due to the differences in physical make-up between the two peoples. Suffice it to say that in the early stages Earth people referred to the Khi't'och as 'mosquito people'. We still don't know very much about them, other than that they have a history of violence but are now quite peaceful, although they love to relive their past in a stylized way, not unlike the Maories of the former New Zealand, whose fearsome tattoos were later only painted on. This Attack Dance is, at best, an imitation due to the lack of native instruments, and it was a very happy occasion for this composer when, at a concert at the House of Culture on Khi't'on, the Khi't'och showed their appreciation by clicking their feeding tubes and emitting loud shouts.
- Wedding Dance and Prayer - Planet B'Gar. There is little doubt that the people of this planet originate in the former country of Bulgaria. Several examples of the characteristic B'Gar signature have been found in old archives and recordings. The style of the wedding dance and prayer the style of which is reminiscent of that of the natives.
