Nightfall in Camp

Traditional
Arranged by Tom Wade-West

ABOUT THE WORK: Nightfall in Camp combines “The Last Post”, and the hymn tune “Unto the Hills”.

“Unto the Hills” was written in 1860, by the English composer C. H. Purday. Charles Henry Purday (1799 -1885), was a singer, London Presbyterian precentor, lecturer, composer and music publisher.

The words to the hymn paraphrase Psalm 121, and were written in 1877 by The Marquis of Lorne:

Unto the hills around do I lift up
My longing eyes,
O whence for me shall my salvation come,
From whence arise?
From God the Lord doth come my certain aid,
From God the Lord, who heaven and earth hath made.

“The Last Post”, or “The Watch Setting”, traditionally ends the day in the British Army. It has become customary to play this impressive call at military funerals and at Remembrance Day ceremonies.

ABOUT THE ARRANGEMENT: This arrangement is suitable for a developing band. The parts are doubled in many instances, to allow for a varied instrumentation. The bass line is played by the trombone, baritone, bass clarinet and tenor sax; if you are fortunate enough to have all of these instruments in your ensemble, take care that the line does not become too heavy. All the musical lines should be played smoothly, contrasting with the more militant statements by the solo trumpet. The piece can be performed at Remembrance Day services, or on other solemn or dignified occasions.
