Pieds-en-l'air from Capriol Suite

Peter Warlock
Arranged by David Marlatt

THE WORK: Capriol Suite, easily the most famous composition of Peter Warlock (1894-1930), is based on ancient dance tunes used in a sixteenth-century treatise on dancing by Thoinot Arbeau. The book is written in the form of a dialogue between the author and a lawyer named Capriol. The suite was first composed as a piano duet then later scored for string orchestra.

THE ARRANGEMENT: It is a flugel solo beginning to end and that sound should be supported but never dominated by the Trumpet. Euphonium rather than trombone is preferred since it will blend better with the horn and tuba.
