PROGRAM NOTES

Jeff Beal (b. 1963) is a three-time Emmy Award-winning American composer of music for film, media, and the concert hall. An avid jazz trumpeter, he graduated from the Eastman School of Music, where he was a recent speaker and honored alumnus. In addition to House of Cards, his credits include the acclaimed TV series Rome, Monk, and the motion picture Pollock, among others.

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

Using a synth or electric bass is strongly recommended. Listen to the soundtrack recording and emulate electronic bass timbre. Tubas will have to stagger breath throughout the entire chart. The use of the electronic bass instrument will foster that effort.

It is possible to perform this arrangement without piano. If piano is not available, add the marimba (or xylophone) in unison with bells in measures 6–12. A minimum of six percussionists are required. One player should be able to play both bells and marimba unless the optional piano is eliminated. Three concert toms are essential to the orchestration. The timpani requires only the one pitch, G.

The trumpet fanfares are to be played with a loose military style and in the distance. Imagine Miles Davis playing bugle calls.

In measures 30 and 31, the dissonance between the melodic line and the harmony is intentional. Performing the concert F melody are oboe, bassoon, alto sax, tenor sax, horns, and euphonium. Performing the concert F# in the harmony are trumpet 3, trombone 2, and the optional piano.

Do not exceed a tempo greater than marked ($\text{♩} = 100 \text{ bpm}$). There is an optional repeat indicated from measures 14–25. Should you opt to extend the arrangement by applying this repeat, the first time should be performed only by the euphonium (in a soloist capacity), accompanied only by flute, oboe, all B \flat clarinets, and the optional piano on the sixteenth passages, or one player on a part for those woodwinds that are doubled on the piano.
