About the Composition

Buglers Rule is a trumpet-section feature for the youngest of beginning bands. It uses only the first six notes of the B \flat scale. Simple eighth-note rhythms are always on the same pitch. Stylistically, the director will want to strive for the well-marked articulation and brisk tempo which define the concert band march genre.

Optional parts include alternate horn, alternate trombone and timpani.

A performance of this piece has been recorded by Carl Fischer and is available online free of charge.

Thank you for choosing this composition. I hope your students and audience will find it instructive and enjoyable.

About the Composer

Joseph Compello, a native of Carbondale, Pennsylvania, holds degrees in music education from the Peabody Conservatory and Towson University. During his 31-year career as an instrumental music teacher in Maryland, he wrote numerous compositions for his students. In 1994, Andrew Balent began publishing many of these classroom-tested pieces including his debut publication Cadets on Parade, and the 1996 best-seller Rock to the Max, Mr. Sax. Now retired from teaching with over 100 published works to his credit, Compello continues to draw on his extensive background in music education to compose new music exclusively for Carl Fischer's Performance Series.

His music for young players is now a model for college curricular study by music education students. A master's thesis by Abel Borg entitled "The resourceful and engaging compositions for beginning band by Joseph Compello" is available at:
<http://gradworks.umi.com/MR/75/MR75572.html>

Compello's journey from school teacher to internationally published composer was recently chronicled in the Baltimore Sun. His music is now performed worldwide in venues ranging from school concerts to Carnegie Hall.
