About the Composition

Through the years Americans have answered the “call to duty,” whether in time of conflict, natural disaster or public service. Call to Duty March provides the opportunity for young bands to pay tribute to the men and women who serve and have served their nation.

Composed in traditional march form: first strain, second strain, first strain reprise, trio, break strain and final trio, the opening trumpet melody reappears in the break strain (m. 105) and as the coda (m. 129). As with any march a separated style is appropriate, while maintaining good tone quality. The trio melody (m. 65) and harmony (Ob./Clar./A. Sax/Horn) should be performed in a more legato manor with the bass line remaining marcato. The break strain (m. 97) and final trio (m. 113) returning to a separated march articulation..
