Two Holland Tales

Dutch Folk Songs
Arranged by Ryan Meeboer

Inspired by two folk songs from my Dutch heritage, Two Holland Tales is a piece that combines lyrical and upbeat sections. Daar waren twee koningskinderen (There Were Two Royal Children) is the opening lyrical movement which displays the talents of both the wind and brass sections. Balance is key for this part of the piece, as the melody is moved around the different sections and it is important that it is always heard over the colourful backgrounds.

The piece then moves into Toen ik op Nederlands bergen stond (I Once Stood On the Netherland's Hills). This is a fast movement in 6/8 and features the percussion section. This movement is meant to be fun and played with a light bounce. In the second half of this section, a third Dutch folksong, Drie schuintamboers (Three Nasty Drummers), is used as a counter-melody by the Horn and Alto Saxophone and is meant to add some new, interesting material to the piece as it comes to its closing.
