Swiftriver Passage

Paul Suchan

Swiftriver Passage was commissioned by the North Battleford High School Concert Band and the Living Sky School Division for the Centennial Celebrations of the City of North Battleford, Saskatchewan in 2013.

The title Swiftriver Passage brings to mind three images: The flowing of water down the Saskatchewan River, the passage of time for the people connected to the river and a rite of passage as the modern community enters its second century.

Saskatchewan: From Kisiskâciwan in Cree which translates to Swift Flowing River.

Special care should be given to the main theme when it is present. (Bars 10 - 24, 104 - 119, 125 - end)

Winner of the 2014 Canadian Band Association Composition Competition

Paul Suchan's music has been described as richly colored and skillfully structured; one finds that form is often where we discover the meaning and emotional impact of the work. He enjoys writing in diverse styles for groups and individuals of all abilities and levels. His compositions have been performed by symphony orchestras, professional organizations, university ensembles, high school bands and choirs, and community groups across Canada and the United States.

Paul Suchan is from Saskatoon, Canada where he graduated with a B. Mus/B.Mus Ed (2007) from the University of Saskatchewan. He furthered his studies at the Université de Montréal with a M.Mus in Composition (2012) with composer Alan Belkin.

Please contact the composer if you require any further information about this piece or his availability for commissioning new works and appearances.
