And It Begins

By Haley Woodrow

The composer writes, "I'll never forget being 11 years old and having the trumpet assigned to me for my beginning band class! Like many others, this seemingly simple decision had major implications on how I spent my teenage years—and still has a major impact on me today as an adult. I named my composition And It Begins to celebrate the early stages in the journey of becoming a forever band kid."

The piece features a snare solo and a low winds feature, as well as extended harmonies in the middle section.
