Program Notes

It's time to run. Erupting from the outset, Escape the Lost City drives forward with wild intensity. The theme of the piece is based on the first four notes of the E-minor scale. The first statement of the theme in the opening measurer is in three voices: the top voice moving up, the middle voice staying on the root, and the bottom voice moving down to then form a three-part chord in fourths.

A slow, steady tempo in rehearsal to get all the sections of the band syncing together will be key, as there are many spots in the piece where each section is playing their own figure, i.e. mm.10–36 and related sections.

Trumpets and horns carry the tune at m. 10, while the other sections have integral parts in creating the feeling of action and excitement. The lower voices are the solid, percussive foundation and the woodwinds play accented staccatos and rapid repeated notes. Flutes and clarinets with the trumpets take over with the soaring melody at m. 18 over pulsing lower voices. The tone changes at m. 48, and the driving staccatos give way to impassioned legato playing, as each section is essential in the shift at this point. First woodwinds and horns carries the broad, flowing melody and trumpets and trombones playing important counterlines underneath.

The vigorous flight begins again at m. 68 and dovetails into a question-answer section at m. 80, featuring the separate sections of the band. A return once more to the main melody at m. 94 culminates with rich, cascading harmonies at m. 100. A final majestic legato section at m. 104 with soaring melodies and a moving alto saxophone countermelody sets up the animated sixteenth-note figures at m. 116. Quick ensemble figures, played with precision and passion, highlight the dynamic ending and concludes this whirlwind journey.

The Carl Fischer Performance Series for Band has five performance levels to provide you with a highly focused repertoire for your band. Each level has been carefully designed and graded, within specific guidelines, so that each piece in a level will work with your band when it achieves that level. Each level is also color coded for ease in finding the series that will be appropriate for your band, as it develops.

Within each grade level, you will find selections in a variety of styles and genres designed to meet all of your performance and teaching needs. The Carl Fischer composers and arrangers are some of the most respected writers in the business. Their music is dynamic, fresh and eminently worthy of your attention.

Concert Performance Series

- Expanded instrumentation to 2 Flute, 3 Clarinet, 3 Trumpet, 2 Horn and 2 Trombone parts
- Expanded use of rhythms, ranges, keys, but technical demands are still carefully considered
- Generous cross cueing of exposed or solo parts
- Expanded percussion writing, within reason, for maturing students
- Careful selection of keys and degree of difficulty for advancing musicians
