About the Piece

To the Colors is written in the style of a typical U. S. Civil War marching song. It incorporates the first strain of the bugle call “To the Color,” which is used to render honors in ceremonies when no band is available. In military camps “To the Color” is played for the raising of the U. S. flag in the morning. It commands all the same courtesies as the National Anthem.

To the Colors is dedicated to Jacob O’Brien on the occasion of his eleventh birthday. He is a member of the 4th United States Artillery, Battery A, Cushing’s Battery, a U. S. Civil War reenactment group and studies percussion with me.
